Tucked away on a quiet street in the lovely tree lined Oakmore neighborhood, 1989 Wrenn Street is a contemporary light-filled home which has been tastefully updated inside and out to satisfy today's modern buyer. The home has an open floor plan with stunning views of the South Bay and beyond from multiple rooms in the house. The updated kitchen features new chef style Kitchen-Aid stainless steel appliances, gas stove and hood, ample cabinetry dressed with slick modern brass pulls and Carrera marble counter tops.

One bedroom and full bath are located on the first level and a second spacious bedroom and master can be found on the lower level. Attached to the master is a den/office with French doors leading to a newly built deck and landscaped yard – a perfect spot to enjoy your morning coffee! Lush foliage, oak trees and flowering plants dot the landscape with two sunny patios (front and back) and a large welcoming front porch. A fully updated hall bathroom, large laundry room with outside access and lots of under-house storage complete the lower level.

Features and Updates

- Master bedroom is complete with recessed lighting, new carpet and a large built-in closet
- Updated kitchen features new chef style Kitchen-Aid stainless steel appliances, gas stove and hood, ample cabinetry dressed with slick modern brass pulls and Carrera marble counter tops
- Level yard for play and entertaining along with a rope swing for the kiddos off the deck
